6 The grants-in-aid are subject to following further conditions to be complied with by the State Government:-

(i) Once an eligible Scheduled Tribe (ST) student joins a college/institution, his/her name should be immediately entered in a register along with a photograph by the college/institution authorities.

(ii) A photocopy of this register should also be made available to the District Tribal Welfare Officer who is responsible for disbursement of the scholarships.

(iii) The Ministry of Tribal Affairs has decided to release 50% of the amount disbursed in the previous year under the Post Matric Scholarship Scheme as first instalment (on-account basis) in the first quarter of the financial year itself.

(iv) The State Government will release this amount to the disbursing agencies in the State within one month of release by the Government of India and a copy of the State Govt. sanction should be endorsed to Ministry of Tribal Affairs without fail.

(v) In order to distribute funds to ST students in a week fixed for every year, two Scholarship distribution camps should be organized in your State every year at predetermined time. These camps should simultaneously be organized in all districts of State at a fixed date and time every year. The District Tribal Welfare Officer or any other officer with whom the disbursement responsibility is entrusted for disbursement of scholarships will invite the Scholarships directly by the selected college/institution in the presence of a responsible faculty member of the college/institution.

(vi) The disbursement should be done in the presence of a responsible faculty member of the institution/college as nominated by the Principal and officer at the district level of the State nominated by the District Collector.

(vii) Such district officers should verify in the register maintained by the colleges/institutions that the earlier disbursement process has taken place under their personal supervision to the genuine and eligible Scheduled Tribe students only.

(viii) The district officers should also compile the actual disbursements made in the previous year and submit the detailed proposal to the State Government who will complete it further and submit the proposal to the Ministry of Tribal Affairs by November of the financial year. The institution and category wise number of students in each category should be indicated in a proforma. The district-wise and State-wise total may accordingly be arrived at and proposal of the state government may be based on the same. The Ministry of Tribal Affairs will thereafter disburse the second instalment by December of the year.

(ix) The third instalment to the students may be disbursed at the earliest on the same pattern as the disbursement of the first instalment and submit a report to the State Government that the scholarships to the genuine and eligible students have been disbursed in their presence indicating category wise distribution of the scholarships as per the format.
