4. It is requested that arrangements may kindly be made to credit this amount to the State Governments in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Ministry of Finance OM No. 2(45)76-Spl.Cell dated 30-8-1976 and as modified vide OM of even number dated 16-09-1976 under intimation to this Ministry.

5. The grants-in-aid are subject to following further conditions to be compiled with by the State Government: -

- (i) The State Government will ensure that the disbursement is made to the eligible students through direct bank or post officer transfers.
- (ii) In case, there is any difficulty in opening banks accounts due to reluctance of the banks, the district officer should report the matter to the concerned District Collectors who would intervene and instruct the Banks to open bank accounts in the names of the eligible Scheduled Tribe students for this purpose The State Government's Finance Department or department dealing with institutional finance should also render necessary assistance in this regard.
- (iii) The digitised details of the students category-wise, out station-wise etc. have to be furnished to this Ministry before release of 2nd instalment.
- (iv) Further, the States should create enabling environment for DBT mode transfer in all Districts for which following steps needs to be taken :
 - a. State /UT should coordinate with State/district level NIC and organize training for State/district level functionaries in software and digitization of beneficiary database.
 - b. Efforts should be made for seeding Aadhaar with beneficiary database. For this, adequate technology support is needed which may be sought from State/District NIC unit.
 - c. Wherever beneficiaries do not have Aadhar number, they may be enrolled for Aadhaar by the UIDAI Registrar.
 - d. Wherever beneficiaries have bank accounts, efforts should be made to link with Aadhar number.
 - e. Wherever beneficiaries do not have bank accounts they will have to be opened, for which Aadhaar may be used as KYC, by the Lead Bank/Bank Branch. The new bank account will then be seeded with Aadhaar.
 - f. An awareness campaign to be initiated to inform the beneficiaries of the programmed and to encourage enrolment in Aadhaar and opening bank account.
 - g. Robust but easy to access grievance redressal systems to be put in place to mitigate unforeseen hardships, system failures etc, and to ensure there is no denial of service to beneficiaries without Aadhaar or bank accounts.
