Empowering the Tribal Youth is the 'PRIORITY' in these challenging times & GOAL seems to be the right forum / platform under the aegis of Ministry of Tribal Affairs, Govt. of India. The idea of connecting & guiding the youth through industry leaders / professionals as mentors along with technology as enabler can really make a difference. This platform can certainly create huge opportunity for tribal youth to learn, perform & contribute to the growth of the Economy. AIC-RMP is delighted to be the Program Partner & wish all the best in this journey with a promise to provide all possible support.
