Prime Minister Narendra Modi at the launch of Pradhan Mantri Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha Abhiyan
(PM-JANMAN)

15, November, 2023

Even in our Tribal society, there is a section which is extremely backward and whose abilities and talents have not been properly utilized. For the development of these particularly vulnerable tribal groups, 'Pradhan Mantri Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha AbhiyaN (PM-JANMAN)' has been launched. We have to see that no one is left behind in our journey of development.

Smt Droupadi Murmu
Hon'ble President of India

We are determined to connect our brothers and sisters of the tribal community, who are at the lowest position socio-economically, with the mainstream of development. Taking this resolution forward, our government has given its approval to the 'Pradhan Mantri Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha Abhiyan (PM-JANMAN)'. With this mission, not only will the basic facilities like housing, drinking water, education and health improve for these family members, but their life will also become more comfortable and safe.

MESSAGE

It is a pleasure to learn about the publication of a Coffee Table Book (CTB) on Pradhan Mantri Janjatiya Nyaya Maha Abhiyan (PM JANMAN). Greetings and best wishes to everyone associated with the endeavour and our tribal communities, in particular.

Launched on Bhagwan Birsa Munda's birth anniversary, which is now celebrated as Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas, PM JANMAN has already begun to play a pivotal role in transforming the lives of tribal communities, especially the Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGs) - nationwide. This initiative empowers underprivileged PVTG members and provides basic amenities like clean water to tribal households. Mobile Medical Units ensure healthcare access for tribals, while educational opportunities for tribal children are also being significantly expanded.

Over the last decade, our emphasis has been on Vikas, as well as Virasat, or preserving our heritage. We remain firmly committed to ensure holistic development and improving the quality of life for tribal communities. Through such collective efforts, we are confidently marching ahead in the journey towards Viksit Bharat.

The collective efforts of all stakeholders, particularly the wholehearted participation of tribal people, their unwavering support and commitment to PM JANMAN are commendable.

The Book showcases the stories of transformation and empowerment of tribal people. May the pictures and write-ups weave an inspiring tale of how PM JANMAN has helped our tribal communities overcome challenges and made tribal people an integral part of the nation's growth story.

Best wishes for the successful publication of the Coffee Table Book.

(Narendra Modi)

This remarkable initiative is a testament to the government's commitment to justice, empowerment, and upliftment of our tribal communities, especially the Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGs).

The book serves as a valuable repository of information, capturing the essence of the PM JANMAN and its impact on the lives of our tribal brothers and sisters. It encapsulates the tireless efforts, achievements, and milestones achieved under this transformative initiative.

As we celebrate this momentous occasion, let us recognize the significance of holistic development of the PVTG communities, including preserving and promoting the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and wisdom of our tribal communities.

Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGs) of India

India has a population of 10.45 crore Scheduled Tribes (STs), as per Census 2011, which constitutes 8.6% of the total population. Some of the tribal communities who live in remote forest areas, have low socio economic and health indicators and suffer from high vulnerability compared to other tribal communities, have been categorized as Particularly Vulnerable Tribal groups (PVTGs). For livelihood, a majority of PVTGs rely on forest resources and agricultural activities. These 75 PVTGs reside in 18 states and the Union territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands. PVTGs are not constitutional or statutory categories.

While schemes are being implemented by different Ministries/Departments for tribal development and welfare include PVTGs as beneficiaries, an exclusive scheme namely "Development of PVTGs" is being implemented through State Governments & UT Administration since 1998-99 with the objective of overall socio-economic development and welfare of these most vulnerable sections among tribal people. Funds are provided to the concerned State Government / UT on the basis of their proposals in diverse sectors i.e. education, housing, land development, agricultural development, animal husbandry, construction of link roads, conservation of culture and traditional practices or any other innovative activity. Government of India, in the Budget Speech for 2023-24, announced that a Pradhan Mantri Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha AbhiyaN (PM-JANMAN) will be launched to enhance the socio-economic conditions of Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups. This initiative aims to provide essential amenities such as secure housing, clean drinking water, sanitation, improved access to education, health, and nutrition, as well as enhanced road and telecom connectivity, and sustainable livelihood opportunities to PVTGs households and habitats.

Launch of PM JANMAN on the occasion of Janjatiya Gaurav Divas
by Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi on November 15, 2023 in Khunti, Jharkhand

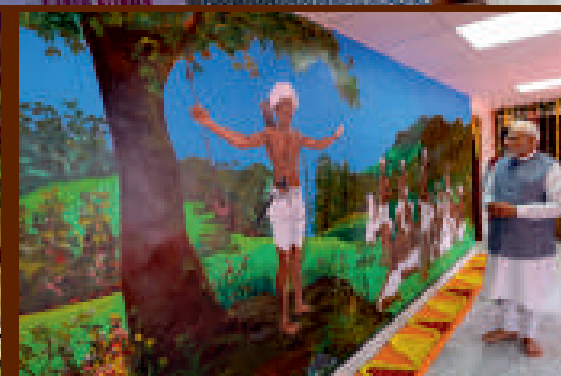

My family members,

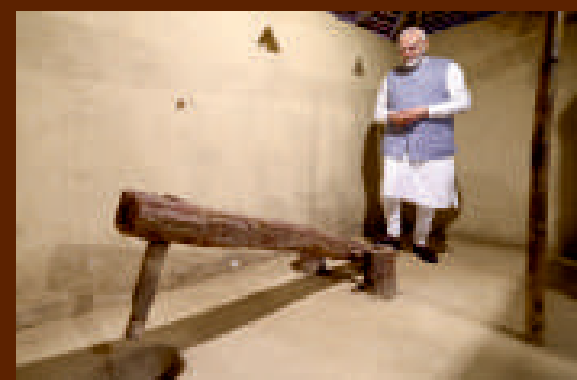

PM JANMAN -- the PM Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha AbhiyaN -- is a pivotal component of the commitment to 'Viksit Bharat'. While social justice has been discussed broadly, Modi has taken the initiative to address tribal justice. For decades after independence, the tribal community was consistently overlooked. During Atal ji's government, a separate ministry and budget were allocated for tribal welfare. Under our government, the budget for tribal welfare has increased up to six times compared to earlier periods. The initiative is named PM JANMAN, focusing on tribal justice. It is a campaign that aims to reach our tribal brothers and sisters who have never been reached before. These are the particularly vulnerable tribes, many of whom are still compelled to live in the forests. They haven't even heard the sound of a train, forget about seeing the train. Over 75 such particularly vulnerable tribal communities reside in more than 22,000 villages across the country. Our government has identified and recognized these 75 particularly vulnerable tribal communities, who are among the most marginalized within the tribal population. They are the last among the adivasis, just as some are extremely backward among the backward. The number of these tribes is in lakhs across the country. The most marginalized tribal communities have not received basic amenities, even 75 years after independence. The people of this tribal society have never been provided with permanent housing. Many generations of children in this community have never seen the inside of a school. Nobody cared about the skill development for the people of this society. Therefore, the Indian government is launching a special campaign to reach these tribal communities. Previous governments focused on connecting with those who are closer or already empowered, relying on existing data. But for me, it's not just about connecting numbers; it's about connecting lives, weaving together existences, filling each life with vitality, and instilling a fresh spirit in every life. With this goal in mind, today marks the beginning of the PM Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha Abhiyan, or PM JANMAN. As we sing the national anthem, today, I am initiating this great campaign PM JANMAN. The Indian government is set to spend 24 thousand crore rupees on this massive campaign.

A Beacon of Hope

The PM JANMAN (Pradhan Mantri Janjati Adivasi Nyaya Maha AbhiyaN) is aimed at comprehensive development of 75 vulnerable tribal communities residing in 18 states and 1 UT who continue to lag behind in social indicators in education, health and livelihood and therefore called Particularly Vulnerable Tribal groups (PVTGs). The population of these communities is about 39 lakh and they live in about 23000 habitations located in 188 districts. Even after 75 years of independence various development schemes of Central and State Government have not been able to adequately address the critical infrastructure needs of the villages and habitations of these communities being located in remote areas and with sparse population.
